Being St David's Day, both teams were welcomed in Welsh language by Mal Williams and a daffodil plant was presented to Mal by Hazel in grateful thanks which no doubt found its way to Mal's Joan.

The match commenced with the nearest the lamb contest which was won by Alan Barton who received a bottle of scotch whiskey generously donated by Sue & Mel Burgess.

The team skipped by George Stone, supported by Rosie Barton and Yvonne Kent narrowly won the highest rink with a winning margin score of 10 shots, closely followed by Mel Burgess, Kate Toon and Mick Northing with a winning margin of 9 shots.

Notwithstanding Rushcliffe supporting their usual friendly team by some of the “big Guns” following our last December encounter, the overall final result was a very close defeat by 128 – 122 in their favour.

The match was followed by an excellent meal in the club restaurant and following the St David’s Day theme – Alan Barton gave a rousing rendition of Tom Jones Delilah with vocal support by the diners in the chorus – many thank Alan – great job.

The afternoon closed with the customary raffle with closing thanks to Medi and the catering team plus Kim at the bar for dispensing drinks throughout the event.
